Airport gears up for terminal extension

PEOPLE looking up to the skies over Southend are set to see an increase in passenger jet traffic.

Southend Airport bosses have applied for a multi-million pound terminal extension – just three years after an enlarged building opened in 2014.

Glyn Jones, chief executive officer of airport owners Stobart Aviation, said: “We currently serve over one million passengers a year and more and more people are realising that Southend offers them a better way to travel.

“This development is all about ensuring we maintain the highest levels of customer experience and ensuring we are able to comply with new regulations.

“The airport was designed to deliver the best possible passenger experience; this

REACH FOR THE SKY: A planning application has been submitted to Rochford District Council to extend the terminal building extension ensures that we can continue doing just that as we grow.”

A planning application has been submitted to Rochford District Council to extend the terminal building. The project has two elements. An extension to the southern end of the terminal building housing new baggage sortation and screening systems. This will enable equipment to be installed, ensuring the airport meets forthcoming European hold baggage security screening standard, which comes into force in September 2018.

An extension to the northern end of the terminal improving baggage reclaim facilities.

The existing arrivals baggage area will be replaced with a spacious area offering improved and more flexible reclaim facilities for arriving passengers.

Both extensions are single storey. If planning permission is granted, the construction is expected to start early next year. This will allow both sections to be open before the summer peak, minimising any passenger disruption.

Flybe and easyJet offer more than 30 domestic and European routes, with more scheduled this year and next.

AMMONIA ATTACK

Man in his 20s sprayed in the face

Hunt for driver in army-style van painted with guns and naked women

A VAN adorned with images of soldiers, guns and naked women is being hunted by detectives after the driver sprayed ammonia into a man's face in Leigh.

The victim, a man in his 20s, was assaulted inside a property in Danbury Close at around noon on Thursday, October 5.

The victim suffered injuries to his face and was taken to hospital for treatment.

The attacker is white, in his 50s, 5ft 8ins, of medium build, clean shaven and with shaved grey hair.

He was wearing a light coloured T-shirt and light blue jeans. Police want to trace the distinctive van seen outside the property at the time.

It is described as an army-style van, with a light-brown coloured camouflage pattern, and images of soldiers, guns and naked women on.

DI David Miles said: “This was a nasty incident but I want to reassure the public that attacks like these are very rare. We believe it was a targeted attack and there is no risk to the wider public.”

If you recognise the man or the van, do not approach them but contact Southend CID on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Which airport? That's Easy...

EASYJET will carry 25% more passengers to and from Southend airport from next summer.

The airline has announced it will base a fourth A320 aircraft at Southend from 25 July next year, and is expecting to fly over half a million passengers from the airport next year – an increase of 130,000 – across 16 routes.

EasyJet's newest route to Malta starts on October 29.

Glyn Jones, CEO at the airport's owners Stobart Aviation, said: "We're thrilled that the UK's largest airline has decided to invest in a fourth aircraft at Southend.

"It's proof of our strong partnership with easyJet and demonstrates their commitment to an exemplary service for our passengers.

"We serve over one million passengers a year, and more people are realising that we offer a great way to travel.

"London Southend Airport is by far the capital's most highly ranked airport by Which? – for customer care and service."

FLYING HIGH: London Southend Airport chief operating officer Jon Horne with easyJet base captain Chris Foster and LSA-based crew

NEWS IN BRIEF

Red faces for fire crew

● A FIRE crew has been suspended from community work after a firefighter wrapped a colleague's two children in cling film.

The incident two weeks ago was caught on camera at a fire station in Southend and posted on Facebook by the children's mother. She wrote that it was a joke and that the youngsters had enjoyed it.

Essex Fire Service is investigating and the watch has been put on "core duties only" – meaning it can't carry out community work. Chief fire officer Adam Eckley said stations "must exemplify professionalism".

He added: "The photos we have seen have raised concerns. A thorough investigation and process has now started. The firefighters involved are embarrassed and regretful of how this event has been interpreted."

Alleged rape plea

● POLICE are appealing for information after a woman was allegedly raped in Southend in the early hours of Thursday, October 5.

Essex Police confirmed they had received reports that a woman was raped in Lucy Road, Southend.

A spokesman said: "The victim reported that she was raped by a man in the vicinity of public toilets between 3.30am and 4.30am. She is now being supported by specialist officers."

The spokesman confirmed that police are carrying out forensic examinations at the scene and reviewing CCTV footage.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the Sexual Offences Investigation Team on 101, Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 or email SOIT@essex.pnn.police.uk.

● A MAN has been arrested in connection with the alleged rape of a woman in Lucy Road, Southend. The 23-year-old from Benfleet has been released under investigation. Enquiries are ongoing.

Flood relief arrives

● A FLOOD alleviation scheme for Rayleigh costing almost £1m is just a month from completion. The works are set to transform the lives of Rayleigh residents hit by flooding.

They include the construction of a small earth dam – or 'attenuation bund' – on Swayne Park School sports fields and works to increase the storage capacity of Swayne Park pond, which had overflowed during periods of heavy rainfall. The scheme should be ready in November.

'Frenzied' Kursaal stabber given a nine-year sentence

A MAN has been jailed for nine years for stabbing a teenager in Southend.

The victim, an 18 year-old man, had been at an event at The Kursaal on Friday, April 14 with a group of friends.

At around 1am on Saturday, April 15, a fight involving a large number of people broke out on a landing area outside the function room, during which the victim was stabbed several times by Nes Kisoka.

The victim was stabbed 14 times. His injuries included a collapsed lung, and he spent nine days in hospital.

Kisoka left the scene immediately after the stabbing, but was arrested at the junction of Honiton Road and Woodgrange Avenue at around 1.30am.

He was charged with GBH and possession of an offensive weapon in a public place.

At Basildon Crown Court on September 26, Kisoka admitted the charges.

At the same court on October 5, Kisoka, 19,

TERRIFYING Nes Kisoka

of Eastern Esplanade, Southend was jailed for nine years.

Detective Sergeant Rachel Jeffery, from Southend CID, said: "This was a frenzied attack at a busy party.

"It is galling that Nes Kisoka was so comfortable using this level of violence – the results could have been much worse.

"The victim suffered several stab wounds and had to spend a significant amount of time in hospital.

"I hope Kisoka uses his time in prison to consider the consequences of his actions.

"I hope this sentence comes as some solace."

DS Jeffery went on to praise the courage of the victim throughout the investigation.

Detective Inspector Chris Rose from Southend CID said: "I want to praise the hard work of all the officers involved in this investigation.

"Their tenacity helped bring Kisoka to justice.

"This was a terrifying incident and I praise the bravery of the victim."

Win tickets to H.G. Wells' sci-fi classic

THE Queen's Theatre Hornchurch is offering two lucky readers the chance to win a pair of tickets to see the exhilarating world premiere of a new adaptation of H.G. Wells' sci-fi classic The Invisible Man.

This thriller is at the theatre from Friday, October 27, to Saturday, November 18.

The 19th century draws to a smoggy close and in a small room on Great Portland Street, scientist Jack Griffin discovers something that has literally, never been seen before.

Later, the arrival of a sinister figure wrapped in bandages in a small village in West Sussex sends the locals' tongues wagging and suspicions racing.

After a series of mysterious incidents, fears of the faceless man turn to terror and the villagers attempt to hunt him down – can Jack, plagued by his own obsession for power, find safety and return to normality?

The cast includes Phil Adèle (Little Shop of Horrors, Selladoor UK tour); Sophie Duval (The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, West End); Nicholas Goode (Of Mice And Men, Birmingham Repertory Theatre); Paul McEwan (Peaky Blinders, Tiger Aspect/BBC); William Oxborrow (Guys and Dolls, West End); Matthew Spencer (1984, West End and International Tour); Matthew Woodyatt (One Man Two Guvnors, West End, UK and International Tour) and Eleanor Wyld

(Alongside David Tennant in Don Juan in Soho, West End).

This breath-taking adaptation of H.G. Wells' novella is written by award-winning theatre-maker Clem Garrity and is filled with music, illusion and adventure.

The brents are back

BRENT geese, icons of Essex's estuaries, are moving; thousands upon thousands of the world's birds are migrating, post-breeding.

In Essex, almost all summer visitors, bar the odd swallow and sandwich tern, have left to begin their arduous migration to Africa.

Numerous species are stopping off in Essex to rest and refuel, as they head south, such as wheatear, little stint and osprey.

Over the coming weeks, winter visitors will arrive in droves as well as the brent geese, such as waders and ducks, and thousands of winter thrushes – redwings and fieldfares – will descend on Essex from Scandinavia. A few such as short-eared owls, are already here, including up to three individuals at Essex Wildlife Trust's Thurrock Thameside Nature Park. Other birds of prey, including a few hen harriers, will be here soon too.

The day that took our breath away

ON the evening of October 15, 1987, legend has it that BBC weatherman Michael Fish told the nation that, contrary to some warnings, there most definitely was not a hurricane heading for Britain.

That's the clip which, no doubt, will be shown on TV this week, even though Mr Fish has always claimed the full broadcast told a slightly different story.

Overnight into

October 16, southern England was devastated by the worst storm to hit the country since records began, causing at least 17 deaths as trees fell, caravans cap-sized and roofs were torn off buildings.

As the 30th anniversary of that night approaches, the Yellow Advertiser revisits some of the images our photographers took of the aftermath.

Drivers ignore seatbelt rules

A TRAFFIC operation held in Southend on Monday caught 76 drivers driving without a seatbelt.

Officers from the Casualty Reduction Section held a dedicated operation on London Road, Southend on October 2, to help to reduce those killed and seriously injured on our roads by using a combination of engagement and enforcement.

Throughout the operation, 76 drivers were dealt with for failing to wear a seatbelt while driving and 10 drivers were found to be driving using their mobile phone.

Two people were arrested during the operation.

A 37-year-old woman of no fixed address was arrested on suspicion of failing to appear at court and a 19-year-old man from Westcliff was arrested on suspicion of failing to stop for police, dangerous driving, driving without a valid licence, driving without valid insurance, dwelling burglary and theft of a motor vehicle.

He was charged for failing to stop for police when directed, driving without insurance and dangerous driving. He will appear at Basildon Magistrates' Court on October 17.

Another driver failed to stop for police and a short pursuit took place.

The pursuit was halted after a young child was seen in the vehicle. Enquiries are ongoing to locate the driver.

Four drivers were driving without valid insurance and had their cars seized and three were speeding. Two cyclists received tickets after they jumped a red light on the A13.

Matt Hine, operational tasking supervisor at the casualty reduction section, said: "Our traffic operations help to keep Essex roads safe by targeting those who pose a risk to other road users."

"However, in a lot of cases, motoring offences will uncover more serious crimes."

"This operation demonstrates how the use of stop searches and automatic number plate recognition can assist us in bringing offenders to justice."

New batch of police officers join the ranks

PROUD: Essex Police recruits at force HQ

MORE than 30 recruits "passed out" during a ceremony at Essex Police HQ in Chelmsford.

The officers have spent the last 18 weeks training to become constables and after pledging their commitment to serve Essex residents, were welcomed to the force in front of their loved ones.

Deputy Chief Constable BJ Harrington thanked the officers for all their hard work during training and wished them well in their future as PCs.

He said: "You have in front of you a career that could take you anywhere but wherever you go, whether you specialise as a firearms officer, dog handler or whether you choose to stay in local and community policing, each choice you make is valuable. Take with you the training you've been given by the Essex Police College as your foundation."

READERS' LETTERS

We look like fools in eyes of Europe

I USED to be a staunch Labour supporter and devoted trade unionist, but of course I was younger and ruled by my heart.

Now I am older, I am ruled by my brain and in the absence of UKIP have developed a lot of respect for Theresa May.

To me she is a strong leader carrying out the will of the people despite the illogical attacks made by others who are proving to be weaker than she is.

It is always the easy option to find fault in others and attack their views rather than provide constructive criticism and offer support.

The opposition parties will of course disagree with any current government, but I can't understand why the Conservative Party weakens its position by disagreeing with each other.

I want a government that is solid and moves forward together so this means supporting their Prime Minister or at least be seen to doing so to the public they are supposed to represent.

The European negotiators seem to be using bullying tactics and this is why I admire Mrs May for not just facing their attack, but also doing so while being attacked at home in such a undemocratic way.

We are beginning to look like fools and it's time to show them that we are British and strong as we have in the past.

I would be only too pleased if our Government severed ties with Europe without a divorce payment and then said if you now want to trade, the ball is in your court.

Let's show them that Britain is GREAT and let's move forward at our pace not at a pace dictated by Europe.

Keith Little
Benfleet

If Brexit is one big lie shout it out

HAVE you noticed how almost every politician who speaks on Brexit says they voted to remain, but they're Brexity now?

So, apparently, Brexit is being driven by a bunch of remainers who don't believe in it.

If Brexit is one big lie – there's not one provable truth. It's a shameful sham, an asinine assertion – those remainers should be shouting to the rooftops in protest rather than meekly serving a monstrous deceit.

The witless plot seems to be to stop abusing ourselves before Europe and doing it before America instead, abandoning Europe to the Germans.

Didn't we fight two world wars to stop that from happening?

Paul Divine
Westcliff

Remoaners' bare-faced affrontery

THE bare-faced affrontery of the remoaners goes on and on.

Last week (Letters, Oct 6), we had Paul Devine suggesting that David Cameron should have rigged the 2016 referendum result and Paul Martin accusing me of splitting hairs over a 1972 referendum that didn't take place (it only happened in his imagination).

They cannot even agree on why the 2016 referendum was called in the first place.

Mr Martin claims it was a sordid attempt to unite the Tory party, but at least Mr Devine is correct in his view that the majority of the British people demanded it after Nigel Farage's campaign to leave the EU. The voting turnout was 72.2 per cent.

Mr Martin may wish to take note that the UK has had three national referendums; 1975 a decision to leave or remain in the EC (not the EU), 2011 on the alternative vote system and 2016 to leave or stay in the EU.

There is a certain amount of naivety shown in Mr Martin's view of military matters by his claim that being as most EU states belong to NATO there should be continued military co-operation between member states particularly as Vladimir Putin is flexing his muscles.

What he doesn't seem to understand is that a European army means just that. No member states would have military forces of their own and therefore NATO would cease to exist.

Anyone in Europe wishing to pursue a military career would have to join the European army or, more probably, be conscripted into it.

There is no mention of a European navy or air force yet but that would obviously follow.

It is hardly surprising that Putin is getting hot under the collar, so would any countries' leader worth his salt, who was being faced with a massive military force forming on his border.

More to the point, who will be in charge of this new force, hopefully not those running the EU at present, given that over the past few weeks we have witnessed their style of democracy in action.

It would most probably be the Germans as they seem to run everything else.

It's a pity there is still a small proportion of the British public spreading gloom and doom instead of getting behind and supporting the nation, their ultimate aim is a second referendum, they try to disguise it by using many arguments, the most popular one being, having a vote on the Brexit negotiation results but this second referendum just isn't going to happen.

We as a nation voted to leave the EU and we as a nation must live with our decision, be it good or bad for the UK.

It could be the best thing we have done or the worst, we will only find out later but we all need to be united to go forward into the unknown.

PM May has broken the trust of us all

IF I was in office it would be my duty to follow protocol honestly, yet this year the prime minister misled our Queen about a deal she never had at that moment in time, causing delays and costing money.

The Queen was visibly unhappy with Theresa May's behaviour and she showed the prime minister how she felt by not appearing in her crown.

If you can not form a deal then the party with the second highest seats is asked whether they are capable to form a government or work as a minority yet this question was never asked due to a lie.

Mrs May broke the trust of everyone to keep power which she constitutionally had no power to do. Her behaviour can be looked upon as treason with her disregard to protocol and wasting £1 billion on the ridiculous deal with the DUP who have not even sided with her on a recent vote in Parliament.

The only leader behaving themselves was the man they kept making ridiculous accusations of being unpatriotic towards – Jeremy Corbyn – who was backed by 120 leading economists worldwide unlike Mrs May.

Within one year she has had Grenfell, terrorist attacks, a major loss in seats, party membership shrinking and she lied to our monarch.

Plaque set to take pride of place in store

MORRISONS Western Approaches has a covered plaque by store exit. We have been in talks for months to get it uncovered and possibly restored from the humiliating graffiti that an idiot had scratched on to it.

Finally, we have learnt that Morrisons' head office is getting costings to not only restore it but have it moved from the external site to a place within the store.

The plaque commemorates the store's official opening by the then Mayor Watson-Lamb.

The damage done to our heritage should be condemned. On this occasion the vandal does not win.

SARAH'S FESTIVE RETURN

By Liz Wade

features@yellowad.co.uk

YOUR favourite festive film – Nativity! – is now a major new musical stage adaptation that is about to hit the road and will be at Cliffs Pavilion, Southend, next month.

Every child in every school has one Christmas wish, to star in a nativity, and at St Bernadette's School they are attempting to mount a musical version. The only trouble is that their teacher, Mr Maddens, has promised that a Hollywood producer is coming to see the show to turn it into a film.

Join him, his teaching assistant – the crazy Mr Poppy – a bunch of hilarious children and a whole lot of sparkle and shine as they struggle to make everyone's Christmas wish come true.

Debbie Isitt, the creator of the much-loved film, has adapted Nativity! into a musical and it looks set to be the Christmas show to see this year.

Feelgood, funny and full of yuletide joy, Nativity! The Musical features all of the favourite sing-a-long hits from the films including Sparkle and Shine, Nazareth, One Night One Moment, She's the Brightest Star and a host of new songs filled with the spirit of Christmas.

With the cast including West End favourites Daniel Boys from the likes of Avenue Q, Sarah Earnshaw, who has appeared in Wicked and Spamalot, and Simon Lipkin from Rock of Ages and Guys and Dolls, the new musical will be the perfect comedy for all the family.

Sarah, who plays Mr Maddens' love interest, Jennifer Lore, is currently five weeks into rehearsals in Birmingham, as the cast prepare for the opening night at Birmingham Repertory Theatre on October 20, and says it is going well and the production is "absolutely" like the film.

"All of the songs in the film are included, but there are lots of new songs as well which add a new, nice dimension to the story," she said. "There are scenes similar to the film and some that are different."

Sarah adds: "We start the story with her [Jennifer] and Paul Maddens and Gordon at drama school and she gets an internship at a Hollywood studio. Paul takes this hard and struggles and there are scenes where she comes back in his thoughts. She is in and out of the story, and you know what happens in the end."

It seems that Simon Lipkin has been given a bit of a free reign as he brings the ever-funny Mr Poppy to the stage and Sarah says that sometimes you are not sure what he is going to say.

"Simon is brilliant," Sarah says. "It is such an amazing character to play, but you get a lot of emotion from him as well."

As well as the mad Mr Poppy, Sarah says she is enjoying working with the young cast members, aged from eight to 11, who make up the pupils starring in the nativity, many of whom will be appearing on the stage for the very first time.

Sarah added: "They are amazing. There are 27 of them altogether, divided into three teams, and they are very funny. They're not stage school kids, they are normal kids and were chosen on their abilities.

"I just love them. They are so enthusiastic."

While Sarah tells me that "the best bit about touring is getting to play all the amazing venues in the UK and the hardest part is being away from home and I miss my family", the second run will give her a chance to be home for a bit before hot-footing it around the country until January 2018.

"I'm so excited", she says. "I live in Leigh-on-Sea so I get to go home for a week. I love old Leigh, the beach is great. We live near Chalkwell Beach and there are gorgeous restaurants in the area."

After Nativity! The Musical, Sarah will be away from home again as she goes on tour as Betty in the Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em stage show, alongside Joe Pasquale as Frank Spencer.

While she has played many characters on stage including Emma Carew in Jekyll and Hyde opposite Marti Pellow, Christmas Past in Scrooge and The Lady Of The Lake in Spamalot, as well as being in the original London cast of Wicked, is there a role Sarah has always wanted to play?

"I wanted to play Eliza Doolittle when I was younger but that has changed now as I would like to do some plays," she said. "It's just nice to see what comes around."

Alongside Sarah, the cast includes Andy Brady as Mr Shakespeare, Jemma Churchill as Mrs Bevan, Jamie Chapman as Patrick Burns, and Daniel Boys who will play Paul Maddens. They are joined by Derek Aidoo, Jalisa Andrews, Andy Barke, Gary Davis, Jennifer Louise Jones and Katia Sartini.

■ For further information and tickets to see Nativity! The Musical at Cliffs Pavilion, Southend, from November 15 to 19, visit southendtheatres.org.uk or call the box office on 01702 351135.

Snow escape

The Snowman (15)

NOT to be confused with the charming animated film based on Raymond Briggs' picture book, which has been a staple of the festive TV schedules for more than 30 years, director Tomas Alfredson's eagerly anticipated picture is a gritty detective thriller adapted from the novel of the same title by Jo Nesbo.

It is the seventh book in the series featuring Norwegian detective Harry Hole but the first to be committed to film.

Harry (Michael Fassbender) investigates the disappearance of a young woman during the first snowfall of winter. Curiously, he discovers a creepy snowman close to the scene.

Employing skills he learnt on a training course with the FBI, Harry uncovers a series of earlier unsolved cases involving married mothers, who vanished or were murdered, at the same time of year – when the first snow settled. In each instance, a snowman had been built close to the scene but was overlooked by the investigating force.

Harry surmises with a chill that his perpetrator is one of Norway's first serial killers and the culprit is bound to strike again. Joining forces with new arrival Katrine Bratt (Rebecca Ferguson), who has recently transferred to Oslo from Bergen, Harry races against time to unmask the killer before the next snowfall.

However, the diabolical mastermind is one step ahead of Harry and his dedicated team.

ONE of the area's most popular Greek restaurants has attracted a growing band of fans since opening more than 10 years ago.

With 25 main dishes, 28 starters, two set meals, and a variety of desserts on the menu, there is always something new to try at the Akropolis in Westcliff.

For those with a large appetite, Akropolis serves a Greek Meze menu every day for £21.95 per person.

The menu, which introduces diners to the Cypriot way of eating, starts with tasty dips and pitta bread, and is followed by cold starters and fish dishes, Cypriot wine sausages, smoked loin of pork and grilled goat's milk cheese.

Then it's on to the meats, and kleftico and stifado for those looking for more.

To finish there are Greek pastries and fresh fruits.

The Akropolis Meze, available for two or more people, is ideal for parties.

The Kleftico Feast, includes traditional dips and pitta bread, kleftico, pastries and a platter of fresh fruits, for £19.95 per person.

The mouth-watering food is not the only Akropolis attraction, the restaurant also produces a good line in live music on most days of the week.

The restaurant, which can seat up to 60 people, has a fully licensed bar that can cater for everything from a quiet meal for two to birthday celebrations.

With its experienced chefs and friendly, helpful staff, Akropolis offers a top quality, value-for-money evening out.

Akropolis, which can satisfy dietary needs and offers child-friendly dishes, is open from 5pm to midnight from Monday to Thursday, 5pm to 1am on Friday and Saturday, and from noon to midnight on Sunday.

See how Hayes Country Park turns dreams into reality for the over-50s

TUCKED away in a picturesque corner of the Essex countryside, in beautiful surroundings and with all major amenities close by, it's easy to see why so many people have made Hayes Country Park their first choice for park home living.

As you cast your eyes around the park, and view the homes nestled on the banks of the River Crouch, or the lanes and mews you can see just what makes this park so extra special.

Whilst the homes may be ultra-modern there is still a real old fashioned commitment to living in a community where people still care and look out for each other, where a smile and wave each morning is common place and you know your neighbourhood is safe and secure with the 24-hour security and a dedicated park manager and staff who are available in the office seven days a week.

The opportunity to experience the very best location in the area combined with real home comforts with sleek and contemporary styling, a lively social scene, which allows you to do as much or as little as you please, it is easy to see why a smile comes so easily to the faces of those who live here at Hayes Country Park, it really is nothing short of idyllic.

There has never been a better opportunity to fulfil your dreams of luxury park living in the Essex countryside. Hayes Country Park, really are turning dreams into reality.

British beauty with Italian style

By Ian Johnson

SOME of the most elegant cars in Britain's long history of automotive manufacture were turned out in the 1960s. And that bastion of conservative design, Austin built one of the best.

In 1961 the BMC Group unveiled the A60 Cambridge, an updated version of the previous Cambridge model, which looked much better.

An important feature was a new 1.6-litre version of the B-Series straight-four engine which was famous for its use in the MGA.

Although by modern standards power was not earth-shattering at 61bhp, the car had enough on tap to make driving pleasant and the revitalised Cambridge became a star of the driveways of Middle England and far beyond.

What made this car such a winner was its styling which had the magic touch of Italian stylist Pininfarina.

The so-called Farina range of cars produced by BMC, including Morris, Riley and Wolseley variants were a great change from the American looks that had crept in to marques like Vauxhall.

ADMIRING GLANCES: The BMC A60 Cambridge

Reduced size rear fins toned down the Italian flourish but the car was undeniably a good looker. It was a true five-seater and featured an enormous boot.

An estate version bearing the familiar Countryman name was both practical and very attractive.

There was even a diesel option on offer in 1962 – a hint of things to come.

The Cambridge sold well with 276,534 being built before production finally ended in 1969.

It was originally intended that this car was to be replaced by the rather strange front-wheel-drive Austin 1800 of 1964, but it remained popular and production continued until 1969.

Neither the 1800 nor the later Austin Maxi had the elegance of this model. It still draws admiring glances and remains a British beauty in the hands of many dedicated restorers who can enjoy its 80mph top speed and maybe a quiet relax as it saunters its way to 60mph in 19 seconds.

In its day, the Cambridge would have cost £883 and stands proud as being a car that was really worth the money.

GOAL SPREE SINKS BLUES

FULL-TIME: Anton Ferdinand

Skipper Ferdinand faces suspension after final whistle red card

Football

Doncaster Rovers 4
Southend United 1
Sky Bet League One
Rowland Lyons at the Keepmoat Stadium

PHIL Brown's Shrimpers were blown away by a four-goal blast in a mad, 11-minute spell either side of the break last Saturday.

Things looked good for the Blues, after Anthony Wordsworth had nodded home. But John Marquis levelled on the stroke of half-time, before Ben Whiteman hit a hat-trick in the first 11 minutes of a nightmare second-half.

To complete a forgettable afternoon United skipper Anton Ferdinand was shown the red card seconds after the final whistle.

The Shrimpers, looking for their fourth win on the spin, should have taken an early lead, but Simon Cox sliced wide with only the keeper Ian Lawlor to beat.

The contest reached boiling point as early as 18 minutes when Wordsworth was lucky only to be yellow carded for kicking out at Jordan Houghton, after the referee had blown for a foul.

Ryan Leonard, making his 250th Southend start, and Stephen McLaughlin then wasted good opportunities before Marquis drew a smart 34th minute save from Mark Oxley.

Rovers then enjoyed territorial advantage before, arguably against the run of play, Wordsworth headed home after Harry Toffolo failed to make a decent goal line clearance.

There seemed no danger, on the stroke of half-time, when Josh Wright lost possession. But Alfie May was played in and allowed to cross for Marquis to net from two yards.

Southend fell apart straight after the break, with Whiteman netting twice in four minutes after the visitors failed to deal with two James Coppinger free-kicks.

His first set-piece, within a minute of the restart, saw the veteran hit the woodwork, but Whiteman reacted quickest to fire home from 15 yards.

Blues clearly hadn't learnt their lesson, as another Coppinger effort resulted in the unmarked Whiteman doubling his tally, from an almost identical position, much to the frustration of the away dug-out.

Whiteman then completed his hat-trick on 56 minutes – from the spot – after a clumsy Ferdinand foul on May.

With the Shrimpers only playing for pride, it took until the 86th minute for sub Theo Robinson to trouble Lawlor, who saved at the second attempt, after the striker had made decent connection from Elvis Bwomono's inviting cross.

But, as the referee blew for full-time, Ferdinand went over to confront the official and was promptly red-carded, to leave Brown saying: "Apparently, Anton was red-carded for talking to the referee in an aggressive manner. It's poor on his part. And, the referee didn't have the best of games."

He then criticised his players, saying: "It was never a four-one result. But, to go from one-nil up to lose four-one, stinks of something. I shall have to get to the bottom of this in the dressing room."

"The mentality of the players, after conceding in the second-half, wasn't right. But, with Anton facing suspension, I've now got four defenders out, especially as Harry Kyprianou appears to have pulled a quad muscle."

Goalscorer Wordsworth admitted: "My goal means nothing, as we haven't got anything from the game."

"We're disappointed after such a good run, but we haven't played well today. You can criticise the ref, but we weren't good enough."

Happy with a first home League triumph of the season, Rovers' boss Darren Ferguson said: "It's a performance that has been coming for a long time. We showed real character and belief."

Southend make the long trip to high-flying Wigan, this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

Doncaster Rovers: Ian Lawlor, Niall Mason, Joe Wright, Andy Butler, Harry Toffolo, Ben Whiteman, Jordan Houghton (Jacob Fletcher 90), James Coppinger (capt) (Matty Blair 76), Tommy Rowe, Alfie May, John Marquis, Issam Ben Khemis, Subs: Louis Jones, Issam Ben Khemis, Liam Mandeville, Craig Alcock.

Southend United: Mark Oxley, Elvis Bwomono, Anton Ferdinand (capt), Harry Kyprianou (John White 25), Michael Timlin, Josh Wright (Jermaine McGlashan 53), Anthony Wordsworth, Ryan Leonard, Stephen McLaughlin, Nile Ranger, Simon Cox (Theo Robinson 65). Non-league round-up

Billericay edge it over Hendon

By Brian Jeeves

BILLERICAY Town remain top of the Bostik Premier Division after a thrilling 4-3 victory over Hendon at the AGP Arena.

In front of a bumper crowd of 1,988, Adam Cunnington found the net twice, while Ricky Modeste and a Billy Bricknell penalty ensured Glenn Tamplin's men the points. They are now a point clear of Dulwich Hamlet, who have played two games more.

Thurrock and Brightlingsea Regent played out an exciting 3-3 draw at Ship Lane. Dennis Oli, Charlie Stimson and Lewwis Spence on target for the home side, George Doyle, Robbie Rees and Billy Hunt responded for Regent.

Leyton Orient's winless National League run is now seven games following a 2-2 draw with Barrow AFC at Holker Street. David Mooney and Craig Clay twice fired the O's into winning positions. However, the hosts ensured a point thanks to goals from Bedsenté Gomis and Jordan White in front of a crowd of 1,796.

Dagenham & Redbridge slipped to a narrow 1-0 defeat at the hands of Woking at the Kingfield Stadium. Regan Charles-Cook with the only goal of the game 12 minutes from time.

Chelmsford City recovered from 2-0 down to inflict a 5-2 thrashing on Eastbourne Borough at the Melbourne Stadium. Anthony Church grabbed a brace for the Clarets, while Chris Dickson, Michael Spillane and Kudus Oyenuga completed the rout. Meanwhile, Phil Roberts scored twice and Karl Oliyide added another as Braintree Town won 3-1 at Gloucester City.

Sam Higgins and Max Cornhill found the net as East Thurrock United drew 2-2 at Hungerford Town, while Steve Cawley's early goal helped Concord Rangers to a useful point against Havant & Waterlooville at the Aspect Arena.

There were mixed fortunes for the region's clubs competing in Buildbase FA Trophy preliminary round ties. Kieran Bishop (2), Stanley Muguo and Joao Carlos (penalty) ensured Grays Athletic progressed following a 4-3 success over Norwich United, while Ryan Gondoh (2), Junior Ogedi-Uzokwe (2, 1 penalty) and Johnville Renee helped Maldon & Tiptree to a 5-2 win at Northwood.

Lewis Godbold and Juan Luque scored either side of the interval as Heybridge Swifts eased past Carshalton Athletic, and there was a 3-0 win for Haringey Borough over Whyteleafe, thanks to goals from Ruaid Kay, Lauren Luke and Chris Benjamin. Waltham Abbey also moved into the next round after Shad Ngandu and Christian Assombalonga delivered the knockout blow to Faversham Town at Capershots. The final outcome, 2-1.

Brentwood Town squandered a 3-0 half-time lead, eventually drawing 3-3 with Stoke Park at the Brentwood Arena. Izzy Bademosi (2) and Andrew Freeman with the home side's goals.

Meanwhile, a brace from Tony Stokes ensured Bowers & Pitsea another bite of the cherry after a pulsating 2-2 draw with Dereham Town at the Len Salmon Stadium.

Barking and Aveley also face replays. The Millers played out a goalless draw at Marlow, while Barking were held 1-1 at Chipstead.

But it's the end of the Wembley trail for Tilbury, who sank to a 4-0 defeat at Potters Bar Town, and Canvey Island who crashed 3-0 at Walton Casuals.

Essex Senior League leaders Great Wakering Rovers won 2-0 at Waltham Forest. Basildon United were reliant on a single Ashley Blackburn goal to pick up three points at Stansted.

Redbridge hit three without reply at Southend Manor, while FC Romania was also in form on their travels, sinking Hullbridge Sports 4-1 at Lower Road. Enfield 1893 were 3-1 winners over Barkingside and there was a notable 2-0 success for Ilford over high-flying Takeley at the Cricklefield Stadium.

Lakeside play-off dream ends at Belle Vue

Speedway

KELVIN Tatum has praised the efforts of his Lakeside Hammers team after their season was ended by Belle Vue.

Tatum, the Vortex Hammers co-boss, was absent from Manchester as his side crashed 69-21 in the National League play-off semi-final.

But he said: "I think most people would agree it's been a fine effort to reach the play-offs and well done to the boys who have got us there."

"I've enjoyed working with the riders and I know they've given it their very best, but I think everyone knows what a powerhouse team Belle Vue are around their own track."

"I was naturally disappointed not to be able to be there, which is another reason why I want to say thanks to all the guys."

"Also to our track staff, sponsors and supporters, it's been tough going at times, but thanks to them all for supporting the club."

BELLE VUE: Dan Bewley 18, Jack Smith 16+2, Kyle Bickley 11+3, Rob Shuttleworth 11+3, Luke Woodhull 7+3, Andy Mellish 6+1, Lee Payne R/R.
LAKESIDE: Max Clegg 6, Paul Hurry 5, Ben Morley 5, Alfie Bowtell 3+1, Jason Edwards 2, Jamie Cousins 0, Nick Laurence R/R.
